Undone & welcomed

Isaiah saw God and fell apart. Then the coal came to him and he was sent. Hebrews 12 says we haven't come to a mountain that can't be touched — we've come to Mount Zion, to the angels and the saints.

1a. On a normal Sunday, which do you feel more — undone by him, or welcomed by him? Or neither?

Zoning out

2a. How easy or common is it for you to be in church, zone out, and feel nothing?

.....

2b. What do you think is causing that? What could help?

.....

Reverence AND boldness

3. Does your pattern of worship at 10:30 on Sunday morning match this calling? How do we do as a church at coming with both reverence and boldness — and how could we improve, on your own and together?

A king who forgot

Uzziah was a good king for fifty-two years. Then he walked into the temple to do something only the priests were allowed to do.

1. Why do you think God treated that one thing so seriously?
